

Grey Lake Walking Club

The Grey Lake Walking Club AGM was held in O'Dea's Hotel, Loughrea recently.

Chairperson, Ann Fahy, gave an indication of the Group's activities over the previous year, which included a more varied schedule of walks, a growing number of members involved in co-ordinating walks, greater participation with other clubs, and attendance at the MCI weekend forum in Ballyvaughan with Gordon Darcy and Tony Kirby.

Membership fee for the coming year is the same as 2006, ie 40 euro per person or 70 euro per couple.

A new starting time of 10am will be tried out for the next schedule of walks, which are to start next month.

Officers elected for the coming year were: chairperson, Ann Fahy; secretary, Marie O'Brien; treasurer, Pat Daly; vice chairperson, Gearoid Walsh; assistant treasurer, Beatrice Shaughnessy; PRO Michael Martin/MargaretBond.

The new schedule of walks, beginning on December 3, will take members to Killimordaly (starting at 10am).
Details will be on display in Loughrea Library.
