

The Courthouse Gallery, Ennistymon

is proud to present

Traditional and New Music From Ireland and Brittany

Jean-Michel Veillon (Flute)

Donal Siggins (Guitar/Mandola)

Emer Mayock (Flute/Fiddle/Uilleann Pipes)

On Thursday, August 28th at 8pm

The Courthouse Gallery, Parliament Street, Ennistymon, Co. Clare Adm: €15

The Courthouse Gallery, Ennistymon is proud to present Traditional and New Music From Ireland and Brittany:

Jean-Michel Veillon (Flute), Donal Siggins (Guitar/Mandola), Emer Mayock (Flute/Fiddle/Uilleann Pipes)

On Thursday, August 28th at 8pm. Tickets are 15€ at the door. This is part of a series of cultural events that are taking place in the Courthouse Gallery this summer, availing of the great acoustics in the gallery space.

Jean-Michel Veillon and Emer Mayock first crossed musical paths ten years ago while Emer was on a tour of the UK with Flook! performing a series of concerts which also included flute players from various parts of Europe. Though Jean-Michel and Emer were to meet and play music informally in the years to follow it was not until the Autumn of 2007 and a Music Network tour of Ireland joined by guitarist Donal Siggins that they got the opportunity to explore and perform Irish, Breton and newly composed repertoire.

The success of this collaboration has led the trio to work together whenever their individual schedules are compatible. Most recently they have performed at St. George's Hall, Liverpool (Liverpool Irish Festival) and An Chulturlan, Belfast. The trio will now embark on a nationwide tour of Ireland from 27th August to 3rd September 2008. The Courthouse Gallery are honored to host this performance.