

Uaigneas

This body of work entitled, Uaigneas is a collection of new paintings and ink drawings that explore how our increased detachment from the land has shifted the meaning of home as seen in the landscape of the West of Ireland today, questioning the meaning of home that offers security, shelter and familiarity.

The exhibition was opened on Thursday, 29th May, by Co. Clare's Arts Officer, Siobhan Mulcahy at the Courthouse Studios and Gallery, Ennistymon, Co. Clare at 7pm. It will run until the 19th of June and the gallery is opened Tuesdays to Saturdays, 12pm to 5pm.

Maria Kerin, Coordinator,
The Courthouse Studios and Gallery,
Parliament Street,
Ennistymon
phone: 065-7071630
email: ennistymon@mail.com

Biography

Eithna Joyce

Born in Connemara, Co. Galway in 1955. After a career in Dress designing she returned to Art college as a mature student. Graduated in 2005 with an Hons. Degree in Fine Art (painting) from Galway Mayo Institute of Technology. She currently lives and works in Kilconly Co. Galway.

Recent Group Exhibitions

White Spirit, Hazel Williams Gallery, Kilkenny (2007)
Earagail Arts Festival, Donegal (2007)
Art for Dublin 2007
Open ev+a Limerick, (2007)
G.M.I.T. Group Show (2005)

Solo Exhibition

The Cows Beyond, Tuam Library, Co. Galway (2007)

Awards

Curatorial Award from Klaus Ottman, ev+a (2007)