

Yeats for Children, 12 weeks of free events.

Saturday, April 14 - Saturday, June 30 2007

Story Hour

Story Hour on each Saturday (April 14th – June 30th inclusive) is a wonderful opportunity for children to listen to some of Ireland's best loved storytellers as they bring the world of Yeats to life and to visit the Library's current exhibition Yeats: the life & works of William Butler Yeats.

Special Tour for Children

Each week, Story Hour will be followed by a special tour of the Library's current exhibition Yeats: the life and works of William Butler Yeats for children aged 4-7 and their parents. This thirty-minute 'tour', in conjunction with the Library's education staff, will introduce younger children to a different part of the exhibition each week and, in an imaginative and fun way, help them to discover more about WB Yeats, his family, friends and – of course - rhymes and poetry.

The Yeats exhibition will close at 4.45pm on Thursday, 5 April and reopen at 10am on Tuesday, 10 April.
