

*Christian Training Institute CTI
Aughrim, Ballinasloe, Co. Galway, Ireland.
Tel/Fax (+353) 090 9631652*

The Sixth Aughrim Summer School
Programme
“Aughrim, history and memory”

Saturday 7 July

- 09.30 Dr. Pádraig Lenihan. University of Limerick: 'How battles were fought'
- 10.15 Oliver C. Gibson FRHS. B. Ed. 'Europe in Aughrim 1691-Aughrim in Europe 2007'
- 11.00 Break for tea/coffee and move to Interpretative Centre
- 11.30 Ben Maile. 'The Battle of Aughrim'
- 12.15 Natasha Ferguson 'Fighting a losing battle? Issues in the management of battlefields in the Republic of Ireland'
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Mervyn Story M.L.A. 'Aughrim in Protestant Memory'
- 14.40 Dr. Éamon Ó Ciardha University of Ulster (Coleraine) 'Aughrim in Irish literature and memory'
- 15.30 Professor John Childs University of Leeds: 'Preserving Battle Sites: The Experience of English Heritage'
- 16.10 Speaker's Forum: Chaired by Rev. Robert Dunlop.
- 18.00 Rev. Trevor Sullivan: View of Battle Site from Caltra Fort Viewing Point.

The Aughrim Summer School is sponsored by the Christian Training Institute (CTI) which was established in 1999 to facilitate healing and reconciliation in international contexts. It is organized by Canon Trevor Sullivan and Rev Robert Dunlop. Bishop John Kirby Chairs the Council of Reference CTI and Mr. John Flynn FRSCI chairs the CTI board.

Booking and further details: Julie Cruise at Aughrim Interpretative Centre, Aughrim, Co. Galway Telephone: (090) 9673939

The main conference venue is at St. Catherine's Hall on the Kilconnell Road in Aughrim village. Aughrim is 3 miles from Ballinasloe on the N6 road from Dublin to Galway

Summer School Cover charge 25 Euro per person

Light meals supplied or restaurant meals available at participant's cost.

Previous Year's Themes

2002 "Healing Wounded History."

2003 "The Past To-Day — Symbolism and Reality"

2004 "Discussing Traditions, Understanding Differences/'

2005 "Finding a Grammar of Consent in the Process of Reconciliation."

2006 "Shaping the Future of Ireland"