Galway County Heritage Plan 2009-2014

It's Your County, Your Heritage, Have Your Say!

Galway County Council and Galway County Heritage Forum are preparing a Heritage Plan for 2009 - 2014 which aims to identify, protect, and conserve the heritage of County Galway.

The Heritage of Galway County encompasses the Natural Heritage, the Built Heritage (including archaeology) and Cultural Heritage. A fundamental objective of the Heritage Plan is to increase awareness, appreciation and enjoyment of our rich heritage resource.

Therefore, Galway County Council and Galway County Heritage Forum want to identify the key Heritage issues for the County, and would like your views, in writing, on how the Heritage of the County should be developed and improved.

Please forward your written /e-mail submissions to:

Galway County Heritage Plan, The Heritage Officer, Forward Planning, Galway County Council, Prospect Hill, Galway, E-mail mmannion@galwaycoco.ie

The deadline for the receipt of written/e-mail submissions is 4 p.m. Friday 14th March 2008

HERITAGE PLAN FOR COUNTY GALWAY'

2009 - 2014

An Invitation to Participate

Galway County Council is facilitating the development of a six-year Heritage Plan, which aims to identify, protect, and conserve the heritage of County Galway. A fundamental objective of the Heritage Plan is to increase awareness, appreciation and enjoyment of the built, natural and cultural heritage of the County. Consultation evenings will be held, with a view to involving the public in the development of the Heritage Plan.

Interested parties are invited to participate in the consultation process and to avail of the opportunity of identifying heritage issues and needs at local level which can be addressed through the Heritage Plan process.

Written submissions may be made by 4.00p.m. on 14 March, 2008 to Brid Higgins,
Temporary Heritage Officer,
Forward Planning, Galway County Council, Prospect Hill, Galway or e-mailed to: mmannion@galwaycoco.ie.
