
Intercultural and Anti-Racism Week 2007

19 March 2007 - 25 March 2007

Details :

Intercultural and Anti-Racism Week takes place this year from 19-25 March. The week is designed to coincide with 21 March, the United Nations international day against racism.

This year, the theme of the week is 'Improving Government Services to Minority Ethnic Groups'. It will focus on:

- * Health
- * Education
- * Employment
- * Housing
- * Policing

The key stakeholders include minority ethnic community groups, senior government officials and departments, social partners, NGOs and the community sector.

During the week, there will be a series of signature events that will focus on these areas and other policy concerns.

The week is coordinated by the National Consultative Committee on Racism and Interculturalism (NCCRI) and the Equality Commission for Northern Ireland, in partnership with the National Action Plan Against Racism and the Northern Ireland Race Equality Strategy.

Further information is available from Kate Morris or Benedicta Attoh in the NCCRI, Tel: 01-8588000, Email: kate@nccri.ie or benedicta@nccri.ie
