Cillín a Díoma (New Book on the way)

History of the Parish

This book is to be published in the Spring 2009 with support of Foras na Gaeilge.

Articles include history, culture, music, heritage, customs, geneology, stories of placenames, folklore, archaeology and the Irish language in the parish. There is a special study of the Irish language in regards to the census of 1901. A study on the meaning of placenames, Irish language words still in use, Irish words that describe various types of people and some of the folklore collected in Irish in the area. Included also is a number of interviews with some characters from the parish and interesting articles on the Night of the Bid Wind and on the Famine.

Among the documents used in the research of this book are:
