

ROSCOMMON ARTS CENTRE VISUAL ART PROGRAMME 2008: CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Submission dates for 2008 are: March 1 to April 13 2007.

Roscommon Arts Centre is seeking submissions from artists working in all mediums who wish to be considered for its 2008 visual art programme. Patrick Murphy, Director RHA Gallery, will short-list artists for studio visits and select the final programme. Roscommon Arts Centre is a multi-disciplinary venue located in Roscommon town. The centre's visual art programming objectives are: To develop an audience for the visual arts in Roscommon through a programme that develops, affirms and challenges people's understanding of contemporary visual arts. To develop a programme that has a national relevance. To offer a national context for the promotion of the best of visual arts created in Roscommon.

Submissions should include: Up to date Curriculum Vitae, Short Biography, 6 images of recent work on disk (jpeg or tiff format), Supporting documentation in the form of catalogue essays, reviews etc, which you feel may support your submission. Please note submissions will only be returned if a sufficiently priced SAE is enclosed. Submission dates for 2008 are: March 1 to April 13 2007.
