Galway

The Route will be clearly marked on the road before and at all junctions with luminous arrows.

This is a fantastic challenge on a very scenic yet safe course, and has a little something for every rider, whether its your first attempt at 100 miles or your second of the week!

Invites are open to all clubs and riders to come and enjoy this day out.

A small sign of fee of €5 will cover any costs to host this.

This is a leisure event, with very much a social aspect in mind.
