

Clare Archaeological and Historical Society Summer Outing

The summer outing of the Clare Archaeological and Historical Society commences on Sunday, May 27. Shane Connolly will give a guided tour of Corcomroe Abbey followed by an informative walk on Abbey Hill.

Shane is a well known tour guide who has in-depth knowledge of all facets of the Burren. With the area's flora in full bloom this is an ideal opportunity to see the flowers in their natural setting and to find out about their curative properties. This event is free of charge.

Meeting at Corcomroe Abbey at 2pm. For those requiring transport a small number of cars will depart from the Abbey Street Car Park at 12.30pm. Wet gear and appropriate footwear necessary.

For further information contact
Mary at 065 6822464 after 6pm.